BD 4399 Fullness of grace .... Fatherly love unchanging ....

You stand in the fullness of grace as long as you receive My Word directly from Me. You cannot appreciate this grace, because you as humans do not have the right concept of the infinite love, which is expressed in this gift, and you would also not be able to bear the measure of my love on earth, if you were able to measure its depth. I talk to you .... a miracle takes place on you, an obvious revelation of My love, omnipotence and wisdom, which is also recognizable to fellowmen ..... You humans, who are surrounded by earthly matter, who can only comprehend what is material, you can hold a dialogue with the greatest spirit of infinity; you can receive teachings, which remain in you, even if you are again completely in the material world .... they have become your property, they are spiritual treasures, which never pass away.

If you now receive my word, the most loyal fatherly love embraces you, it leans towards you, it gives itself to you and makes you unspeakably rich, because to possess my love is the most desirable thing for my creatures, although they cannot grasp it as men. You hear me, and I am therefore present to you. And if I am with you, you can achieve everything from me, I hear every request, every call, and I will refuse you nothing, because I love you and prove this love to you by talking to you, by being with you myself in the word.

Where is a father who loves his children and does not fulfill their requests? Where is a child who is not happy near the father whose love he possesses? I pour out the whole fullness of grace on My children, if they listen to Me and want to receive words of love from Me. And I do not leave you; I remain near you always and constantly, because I do not give up My children, but I strive for ever more intimate union until they are inseparably united with Me forever.

The happiness of love is foreign to you, because you could not bear it on earth. But I want to tell you one thing, that there is nothing more blessed than a fulfilled love, a love which gives itself, which does not deny itself and which strives for intimate union ..... I give you this love, and although you do not yet feel it, you still possess it when you receive My Word, when you listen attentively to what I speak to you through the voice of the spirit. Then the love of the Father surrounds you, and it never leaves you, because you have come out of My love, and in eternity My love for you will not diminish, it will not change, it remains as it was in the beginning, unchangeable, and is valid for you until all eternity .....

Amen
